SOLUTIONS FOR PUBLICLY TRADED CRYPTOCURRENCY COMPANIES

Blockchain projects face mounting challenges as investors increasingly get their information from a wider variety of sources. As a specialized communications platform built around cryptocurrency, investFeed provides a natural media channel to ensure that companies get their messages out as effectively as possible.

With investFeed's Investor Communication Solutions any public company can quickly add their official video and press communications to their own personalized $TOKEN stream on the platform. This is all featured in one centralized interface that provides metrics, monitoring, and compliance.

Ready to expose your business to our group of serious cryptocurrency traders and investors?
